Prayer of one Gangamma for a meal in the Sivacoota in Nanjangud Temple.

Gangamma widow of Venkatananjappa, late ~~Gumasta~~ Chikka Parpattegar in the Sri Sreecanteswaraswami temple at Nanjangud, addressed a petn × to H.H. the Maharaja praying that on account of her destitute condition, she may be allowed to take one meal a day in the Sivacoota or given some grain dole for her maintenance. This petn was transferred to this Deptt for disposal with the Private Secys No 1581 of 12th March 1903. The petn having been forwarded to the Dy Commr for report, it is

× which was transferred to Muzrai Secretariat for disposal stated that the petitioner's prayer cannot be granted owing to the insufficiency of funds. The Peishkar of the temple says that the petr is in ~~an~~ a helpless condition, — but the Amildar states in his report to the Dy Commr that some others are also applying to him for similar help and that if the petitioner's prayer is granted the request of the others cannot reasonably be refused —

Submitted to the Dewan

The Petr is a special case. Her husband served for many years in the Muzrai Deptt and died ~~suddenly of Plague~~

I think she may be allowed one meal a day in the Sivakuta at Nanjangud — This need not be taken as a precedent in other cases — 5/8/03
